

SENATE BILL 4006
By Williams

AN ACT to amend Chapter 393 of the Acts of 1901; as amended and rewritten by Chapter 11 of the Private Acts of 1979; and any other acts amendatory thereto, being the charter of Jefferson City, Tennessee, relative to necessary readings of ordinances.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Article IV, Section 12 of Chapter 393 of the Acts of 1901, as amended and rewritten by Chapter 11 of the Private Acts of 1979, and any other acts amendatory thereto, being the charter of Jefferson City, Tennessee, is amended by deleting the following language in its entirety:

Every ordinance shall be passed on three different days, at regular, special or adjourned meetings. Except in the ordinance adopting the budget, no material or substantial amendment may be made on final passage, unless such amendment be passed in the same manner as an amendment to an existing ordinance.

AND BY SUBSTITUTING instead the following language:

Every ordinance shall be passed on two different days, at regular, special or adjourned meetings.

SECTION 2. This act shall have no effect unless it is approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the legislative body of the city of Jefferson City, Tennessee, within thirty (30) days of its approval by the governor. Its approval or nonapproval shall be proclaimed by the presiding officer of Jefferson City, Tennessee, and certified to the secretary of state.

SECTION 3. For the purpose of approving or rejecting the provisions of this act, it shall be effective upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it. For all other purposes, it shall become effective as provided in Section 2.
